REFLECTION

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
Nor do I really know my own self,
and the fact that I think I am following your will does not necessarily mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you.
And I hope I have that desire in everything that I do.
I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.
And I know that if I do this, you will lead me by the right road,
even though I may know nothing about it.
Therefore I will trust you always.
Even though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death I will fear no evil,
for you are every with me
and you will never leave me to face my peril alone.

TROCAIRE UPDATE FROM SOUTH SUDAN

Dear Parishioner,

This week I wanted to share with you, an update from South Sudan. "Coronavirus is spreading around the world, but in South Sudan it joins three other pandemics already ravaging the country – constant conflict, hunger and sexual violence. And Covid-19 is making them worse. Things were not normal in South Sudan even before the arrival of this virus. In this situation the role of the churches – to which two-thirds of the population belong, with the Catholic Church the largest – is paramount. If this pandemic is to be overcome, it will be in large part through the efforts of the churches."

Please, keep South Sudan in your hearts this Lent. Colm Hogan (Trocaire)
