INTERNATIONAL PARENTAL ALIENATION AWARENESS DAY- Today is the International Parental Alienation Awareness Day. This day highlights a particular form of domestic abuse that takes place when one parent tries to distance his or her children, without reason or justification, from the other parent when a marriage or relationship ends. Such a denial of the rights of children to have a loving relationship with both parents has long-lasting and damaging consequences for a child. For more information about the issue log on to www.alienated.ie.

INTRODUCTION TO THE READINGS THIS WEEKEND
First Reading: The rejected stone becomes the main stone. Those who are despised and rejected are the people who are God's true friends.
Second Reading: The lavish love of God is a gift that leads us through life.
Gospel: The Good Shepherd invites us to listen, to know to follow especially those who feel that they do not belong to the fold, the family, the church and society.
