INTRODUCTION TO THE READINGS THIS WEEKEND

First Reading

The tribes of Israel took delight in King David, a man chosen by God to lead them. How much more should we Christians take delight in Christ, our King and Saviour.

Second Reading

This reading speaks about the power of Christ the King who has transferred his people from the reign of darkness and hopelessness into his kingdom of light and love. Christ our King has brought reconciliation where there was division, and the last words of the reading tell how he did this: 'by his death on the Cross.'

Gospel

Even as he hangs dying on the Cross, Christ the King is mocked by the crowds, by his executioners, and by one of the people dying with him. And even then, Christ the King responds with loving generosity to the spark of faith he finds in another dying man.
