WELCOME: A word of welcome to Sean Murphy from Glencar who is a student for the priesthood for the diocese of Kerry and has been assigned to our parish for two weeks pastoral work. Sean has just completed his formal studies in Maynooth. He previously spent 4 weeks in our parish during January 2018 as part of his pastoral training. We welcome him to our parish and wish him every blessing in his assignment.

Mark Quinn is a native of Castlebar, Co Mayo and is a student for the priesthood for the diocese of Tuam. Mark is living in the presbytery until the end of July and is doing the Hospital Chaplaincy (CPE) course in Kerry University Hospital. He wish him well in his studies.

FAREWELL: to Bishop Crowley, a native of Co Cork and the retired bishop of Kitali diocese in Kenya who has been visiting Kerry over the past two weeks. He came to Kerry especially to visit his two Kenyan priests, Fr Amos and Fr Vitalis. He was delighted to see how settled and happy they are in Tralee— Ciarraí Abú!! We hope he has happy memories of his trip to Tralee and Kerry.

ST JOSEPH'S YOUNG PRIESTS SOCIETY : wish to thank all who supported their envelope collection last weekend. Your generosity is very much appreciated. Envelopes can still be returned to the church or Pastoral Centre.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION: took place on Sunday last, concluding with benediction in the Bungalows, St Brendan's Park. We were blessed with such a beautiful day and a great number who joined in the procession. Many thanks to all who took part, especially the First Holy Communion children. Many thanks to all who helped in any way to make it possible. We would like to thank most especially the residents of St Brendan's Park for their preparation, planning and hard work. The area looked so immaculate on the day. Well done.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO KNOCK SHRINE: This is the first Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock for the diocese of Kerry. It is hoped to have a bus going from each of the parishes in our Pastoral Area— St John's, the Spa and St Brendan's. The pilgrimage will take place on Saturday August 26th. Bus leaving St. Brendan's Parish Centre on that morning. Time will be confirmed at a later date. Cost €30; please contact the Parish Office to book a place.
